The armies of Lee & Meade met accidentally on July 1, 2, 3 1863 in the fields and hills around Gettysburg. Lee meant to evade or destroy the Union army with his 75,000 men. Hear 15 decisions that doomed the confederates in Pennsylvania...and most likely..lost the war for them. Bring your own 'failures' to discuss during the lively 'Q & A'. Glenn LeBoeuf received his degree in history from Monmouth College in 1976 and taught social studies in New Providence for 2 years. An avid student of military history, he joined the 3rd N.J.V.I. (civil war re-enactors) in 1989 & assisted in the film "Glory" & "Gettysburg".
