ROY WHITE FROM COMPTON TO THE BRONX

A YOUNG MAN FROM COMPTON
RISES TO THE HIGHEST LEVELS OF BASEBALL GREATNESS...

Dynamic author and speaker Dr. Semendinger captivates his audiences with the life story of how Roy White became a great New York Yankee!

Roy White played for the NY Yankees 1965-1979. Roy grew up on the tough streets of Compton and created a successful all-star baseball career playing alongside such greats as Mantle, Maris, Ford, Munson, Jackson and many others. Roy is among the greatest all-time Yankees in most offensive categories. After his career with the Yankees he became a star in Japan playing for the Tokyo Giants with the greatest Japanese player Sadaharu Oh.
